

Clintonian

Dedication

Because of his wholehearted cooperation and encouragement of all school functions, his patience and guidance, and his sympathetic understanding of young people, the members of the staff, on behalf of the students of Clinton High School, dedicate this 1919 Clintonian to their Principal, C. Olen Higbee.

Board of Education

The Clinton Board of Education is a group of seven men who devote long hours of their time and much of their energy to further the educational program of the city. These men are elected by popular vote of the city to serve, without pay, for three years. It has been arranged so that the terms do not all expire at the same time, but two, or at the most, three positions must be voted on each year.

The school board elections are not held at the same time that other city, or national elections are, to keep politics from entering. This assures the position for the best man.

Kenneth C. Anderson is President of the Board, and Victor Sorensen acts as secretary. E. H. Jorgensen works with the Board as Treasurer.

The Board is divided into committees in order that individual members may study problems confronting the board more thoroughly. A. W. Poffenberger, L. E. SeEVERS, and H. C. Seiler are the Finance and Insurance Committee, Philip R. Harris, E. W. Holle, and Merritt L. Sutton are the Instruction Committee, E. W. Holle, Philip R. Harris, and A. W. Poffenberger are the Buildings, Grounds, and Janitors' Committee. H. C. Seiler, L. E. SeEVERS, and Merritt L. Sutton are the Rules and Regulations Committee, while L. E. SeEVERS, Philip R. Harris, and E. W. Holle are the Activities' Committee.

Regular Board meetings are scheduled for the first Monday after the first Wednesday of each month, and the second Monday after the first meeting, but many more meetings must be held to carry out this extensive program.

Class of 1949

Susan Lynn

GREEN! This word has described countless years of freshmen, and we were certainly no exception. Remember that first day in September when we went chasing through the halls trying to find the right rooms and not having the slightest idea where they were? How could any of us forget those days? We were excited, and uncertain perhaps, but from where we sat life seemed nothing but a rosy glow, its troubled reality somewhere far off in the future. Four years seemed like a long time — then.

Remember how proud we were if our names appeared in the "Clintonian", and the "informal" initiation the freshmen football team got from the varsity? Our president, Don Duvall, had a good cabinet with Owen Fishwind, Martha Paine, and Kenny Felderman as vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. Senate was something new to us that year, too, and everyone thought those who ran were "brave" for making a speech in front of the class. We finally elected Vicky Baker, Nancy Paddock, Cathy Foster, B. Merwin Finch, Nan Oyaas, "Skintz" Haddad, John Christian, Keith McRoberts, Homer Johnson, and Susan Lynn to represent us.

The cool, crisp autumn days brought with them October, and our first Homecoming. On hobo day Violetta Wiese was chosen the best-dressed girl hobo in C.H.S., and we chose for our freshman attendant, Helen Feddersen. The year rolled on, and the end of the basketball season drew near, with Clinton having a good chance for state championship. School spirit ran high that year. There was never a year like it for pep and enthusiasm, and though we were only freshmen at the time, I doubt if any one of us will ever forget the decisive game in which little Danbury beat us 25-24 for the state championship.

In March we put on the "March Hare Hop", which none of the upperclassmen said would work because no game or event preceded it. We surely showed them, though, by having a larger turnout than even the seniors had at their dance. Nancy Oyaas and Arden Cummings were the first to show up in dramatics, in the play "Nine Girls", and Cherol Burde has since had many outstanding parts in later plays.

Our first Pep Club tryouts came that year and everyone tried hard to gain the coveted positions left by the graduating class. Our first, as well as second Gateway Classics, was held in the pouring rain, but we all came regardless, and were proud to have Patsy Cavanaugh for our freshman attendant.

By the time we were sophomores, a year suddenly seemed to make a lot of difference, and we were fervently hoping we had not acted as "childish" as we thought that year's freshmen were, a feeling common to every class. John Christian was our president; Keith McRoberts, Lorraine Heath, and Shirley Obermiller, the other officers. Susan Lynn was on the student body cabinet, and Charles Booth, Marilyn Hanger, Martha Hempstead, Bob Loots, Alyce Strohm, Paul Sharar, Vicky Baker, and Rod Schroeder were the Senators who represented us. When homecoming came, we elected Shirley Higgins sophomore attendant, and Janet Nielsen the attendant for the Gateway Classics. We put on the Gateway Classics dance and called it the "High Hurdle Hop". Somehow the assemblies seemed better to us then, because they were put on by upperclassmen.

The year before, we had said "good-by" to Mr. Johnston, and so that year welcomed Mr. Higbee to our midst as our new principal, glad to have him with us again. His interest in the affairs and welfare of the school and students has spoken in his behalf more than any words of praise that we could give him.

Then, without quite knowing how, we were upperclassmen! Being a junior meant the Junior Carnival, and the Prom. Our officers, L. D. Fergesen, Kenny Felderman, Lorraine Heath, and Shirley Obermiller, worked hard planning the carnival, and we all worked hard putting it on. For a theme we had "Boom Town", the days of the Forty-niners, and everyone did his share to make it a success, one of the best ones ever given in C.H.S. The king and queen were Ann and Hans. Ann was also one of the attendants to the king and queen of the Prom, Patsy Cavanaugh and Dick Coe. The other attendants were Janet Nielsen, Darlene Vogel, Helen Feddersen, and L. D. Fergesen, Keith McRoberts, Pat Kramer, and Kenny Felderman. Darlene served as homecoming attendant, too, and Shirley Petersen our Gateway Classics attendant.

Representatives were elected to Boy's State—L. D. Fergesen, Keith McRoberts, Kenny Felderman, and Dick Coe. Nan Paddock and David Bowersox won the American history awards. Honor Society members were starting to be picked too, and Dave Bowersox, Martha Paine, Keith McRoberts, and Paul Sharar were the first to go from our class. Charles Madden, Dick Coe, and Bob Jorgenson, who with Merle Ruch and Bob Purcell placed at the state swimming meet this year, also placed in their junior year.

During this, our last year, Keith McRoberts was Student Body president, serving on his cabinet were "Big Rod" Schroeder as vice president, Norma Kahn, secretary, Dave Bowersox, treasurer; and Paul Sharar, attorney general. Bob Loots was senior class president, and the other officers were Kenny Felderman, Alyce Strohm, and Shirley Obermiller. Arden Cummings won the oratorical contest and Vicky Baker also Homecoming queen, received the D.A.R. award. Josie Backer, was her Homecoming attendant. For the Gateway Classics, Patricia Cavanaugh was queen; Nancy Havighurst, senior attendant. We took two firsts in state athletics—first in swimming and first in cross-country track.

We are not the first from our class to leave the halls of C.H.S. since we started out together four years ago, quite a few have left us. Fred Metzger, B. Merwin Finch, Shirley Iten, Ardys Ottesen, Tom Riddel, Dick Brecker, John Lenaghan, Janice Gustafson, Anna Marie Marshall, Janie Robinson, and Terry Dingman have moved out of town or to different schools, but they are not forgotten. We have had so much fun as a class these four years—don't ever forget it. Remember those out-of-town games, the empty feeling in the pit of your stomach before the "black book" was read, the argument we had for two periods over the blue and the grey, all those days when we could walk leisurely to the cafeteria and take our pick of the many vacant seats, and never have to stand in line more than a minute at the most. Remember how John Christian played the piano and the clown at the assemblies, and don't forget those exciting noon-movie serials, or the Swing Show, or our "warmest" friend, the janitor, or the times spent at the Robin Hood.

Remember these things, and many more, and dream of them in later years; there will be other times to dream about and other things to remember, but the thrills of high school days will never be recaptured. Like those who have gone before us in point of time, the forty-niners of the Nineteenth Century, we too have mined great wealth—not perhaps gold, but something of far greater value—a wealth that can never be taken from us. It is the wealth of knowledge.

Thus one chapter in our lives is completed. How will the next begin?

Supreme Court

The Student Government is composed of three branches: the executive, the legislative, and the judicial. In the executive department were Keith McRoberts, president; Rodney Schroeder, vice-president; Norma Kahn, secretary; David Bowersox, secretary of treasury; Paul Sharar, attorney general; Robert Loots, senior president; Lambert Neill, junior president; Scott Hall, sophomore president; Frank Sutton, freshman president.

The legislative branch consists of six senators elected from each class and a bill clerk appointed by the president. The bill clerk was Marilyn Miller, sergeant-at-arms, Robert Jorgensen, first semester; Lauren Kramer, second semester.

First semester senators for the seniors were Kenneth Felderman, Nancy Oyaas, Susan Lynn, L. D. Fergesen, Charles Booth, Norman Sivertsen, and Nancy Paddock. The junior senators were Holger Lund, Nancy Peckham, Barbara Hollowell, Donald Johnson, Fred Schoenbohm, Eunice Kornved, and Jean Kirkman. The sophomore senators were Arthur Munson, Mary Reed, Sally Rehnberg, Carole Jepson, Patricia Blunck, Garnett Fullick, and Margaret Schoenig. The freshman senators were Stanley Felderman, Wayne Thoms, Doris Aplin, Richard Higgins, Margaret Christian, Ronald Sley, and Mary Dickerson.

Second semester senators for the senior class were Charles Booth, Richard Coe, L. D. Fergesen, Charles Madden, Shirley Obermiller, and Norman Sivertsen. The junior senators were Albert Higgins, Barbara Hollowell, Donald Johnson, Nancy Peckham, Fred Schoenbohm, and John Seeser. The sophomore senators were William Anderson, Paul Heath, William McKinley, Mary Reed, Sally Rehnberg, and Alice Robinson. The freshmen senators were Doris Aplin, Mary Dickerson, Richard Higgins, Shirley Manning, Ronald Sley, and Wayne Thoms.

The judicial department is the Supreme Court. There were five members: John Christian, chief justice, Owen Fishwild, senior justice, Grace Ilen, junior, Burton Kirkman, sophomore, and John Maxheim, freshman. The second semester members were Owen Fishwild, chief justice, Alan Lorenz, senior justice, Kay Meyer, junior, Jay Kuchel, sophomore, and Margaret Christian, freshman. Miss Mary East was the adviser.

The advisory board were faculty members. Mr. Herkelmann was chief adviser for the year. Mr. Wagstaff, Miss Birkett, Miss Stoddard, and Miss Raun were the remaining advisers.

Activities of the first semester Senate were to secure permission for the renumbering of the rooms of C. H. S. and to make provision for the completion of the job. They laid the groundwork for the placing of a high school directory in the front hall of C. H. S. They conducted drives to collect money for Thanksgiving offering and for Christmas seals for the fight against tuberculosis. They provided for ushers and part of the program for parents' night during American Education Week. They renewed the working charters of the clubs of C. H. S. An Activity Calendar was prepared for C. H. S. so no school activities would conflict. They planned and supervised the annual Homecoming activities. They also conducted the elections for Homecoming queen and attendants and for the Halloween Mardi Gras queen and king from Clinton High School.

National Honor Society

A chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in Clinton High School in 1915 for the purpose of recognizing Seniors and Juniors who maintain a near B average and who, because of their character, and participation and leadership in school activities, render service to Clinton High School.

The officers for the first semester were Kenneth Felderman, president; John Christian, vice-president; and Martha Paine, secretary. Second semester officers were L. D. Fergesen, president; Robert Loots, vice-president; and Victoria Baker, secretary.

The present members who were elected to the Society last year were Victoria Baker, David Bowersox, John Christian, Kenneth Felderman, L. D. Fergesen, Martha Hempstead, Robert Loots, Keith McRoberts, Nancy Paddock, Martha Paine, and Paul Sharar.

Those inducted last December were Hans Andresen, Elizabeth Barnard, Norma Kahn, and Jean Kirkman.

Advisers for the National Honor Society were Miss Harriet Mathisen, Miss Mercedes Abraham, and Maynard Hansen.

Annual Staff

The editor of the 1949 annual was Patricia Cavanaugh who was in charge of the senior class pictures also. The work of the business manager was handled by Joan Nielsen. Catherine Foster judged the snap shots and awarded prizes to the best submitted. The junior section was mounted by Grace Iken; and the faculty by Brenda Jorgensen. Activities were written by Sue Adams and Betty Barnard. Nancy Ovas, advertising. The sports section, Kenny Felderman edited. Art work was headed by Barbara Fenley. Susan Lynn drew the title pages.

"Cupid's Cotillion," a dance and candy sale, was sponsored by the annual, after the basketball game, February 12.

The Class of 1949 presented the school with a speed graphic camera. Mr. Mickey and Mr. Bohlke took quantities of pictures for the annual.

Mrs. Roger Stoskopf, adviser, and Mr. Olen Higbee ably assisted the publication. Mrs. Edna Thompson was another adviser.

Bi-Weekly

Kay Meyer was editor of the Clintonian or Bi-Weekly this year. Peter Maurek was circulation manager. The regular reporters were Jean Kirkman, Mary Dittmer, Shirley Reed, Patricia DeLoe, Charleen Potter, Carole Jepson, and Elizabeth Barnard. Lawrence Haddad was sports editor. James McCombs, Donald Hartzell, Stanley Felderman, and Robert McDermott were the sports reporters.

The volunteer club reporters were Band, Alice Neff, A Cappella, Nancy Jacobs; Orchestra, Phyllis Koons; Bachelors' Club, John Christian, Robert Loos, and Y-Teens, Joan Kirst.

Advertising manager was Dora Smith. The staff on the paper was Shirle Anderson, June Morris, Gwen Fuller, Violetta Wiese, and Gerald Ramig.

The paper was issued 16 times in the year. Color was added at Christmas. Advisers were Mrs. Kathryn Stoskopf and Mrs. Edna Thompson.

Little Theatre

Officers of Little Theatre were Howard Sible, president; Cherol Burde, vice-president; Elizabeth Barnard, secretary-treasurer; and Vicky Baker, pledge leader.

The purpose of the club is to enable students to develop a keener appreciation of good drama and good acting by means of reading, participation, and observation, to afford opportunities for developing natural ability through work in well-organized, properly directed, and finished dramatic production, to create a spirit of cooperation and a sense of responsibility through activity as cast members or crew.

Points are earned by acting and crew work in stage productions, radio plays, and any other dramatic work that does not give points in any other organization. Little Theatre points are earned as follows: 3 points to be a pledge, 12 points to be an active member, 24 points to earn a letter. National Thespian points are earned as follows: 10 points to be a member, 10 points for each star, four stars being allowed.

The fall play, "Adam's Evening," was given November 18th and 19th. The cast were Rodney Schroeder, Barbara Fenley, Carol Maxham, Philip Garrison, Kathleen Campbell, John Seesser, Arden Cummings, William Lepard, James Malone, and Lora Jane Jackson.

The understudies were William Anderson, Jean Ramsey, and Diana Cheramy. The crew consisted of Cherol Burde, Beverly Osmundson, Jean Ramsey, Audrey Jessen, LaVerne Hollister, Garnett Fullick, Howard Sible, Jack Greenlee, Wayne Thoma, Gerry Ramig, Patricia Blunck, Don Shepard, John Paxton, and Margo Maurek.

The spring play, "Dear Ruth," was given February 3rd and 4th. The cast were Marvanne Pearson, Cherol Burde, Howard Sible, Lora Jackson, Beverly Osmundson, Robert Louts, John Seesser, Albert Higgins, Marilyn Opheim, and LaVerne Hollister.

Thespians

The understudies were Alice Robinson, Carole Jepson, William Lepird, Betty Gill, Rodney Schroeder, Philip Garrison, Robert Andersen, Shirley McConoughy, and William Anderson. The crew consisted of Elizabeth Barnard, Robert Andersen, Henry Clark, Alice Robinson, Carole Jepson, Fred Sloane, Jack Greenlee, William Anderson, Peggy Barnard, Shirley McConoughy, Patricia Knights, Kathleen Campbell, and Patricia Blunck.

A radio play, "Christmas Carol," by Dickens, was given December 15th. In the cast were John Seesser, Rodney Schroeder, Albert Higgins, Elizabeth Barnard, Carole Jepson, Diane Smith, William Anderson, and Lora Jackson, the crew being Thomas Nissen, and John Paxton.

On the debating team were Howard Sible and Elizabeth Barnard on the affirmative; John Seesser and Albert Higgins were on the negative. The question was "Resolved, that The United Nations now be revised into a World Federal Government." The meets were held at East Moline, Loras Academy, Dubuque, and the district meet was at Muscatine.

The Clinton High Orators won many honors during the year 1948-49. Arden Cummings and Lawrence Haddad, who represented C. H. S. in the Clinton County "I Speak for Democracy" Contest, won first and third respectively. Arden was the winner of a handsome radio-phonograph combination, while Lawrence was $25.00 richer for his efforts.

John Christian and William Lepird made it a clean sweep for River King speakers in the county Legion Oratorical Contest by winning first and second place. John was awarded $25.00 and a gold medal, while Bill won $15.00 and a silver medal. John then represented Clinton County in the district meet at Maquoketa. This was the first time that a C.H.S. speaker had won the local contest.

Each of the four orators is a senior which means that we must find new speakers for next year.

Hi-Y Club

Officers of Hi-Y were Richard Coe, president, Owen Fishwild, vice-president; Robert Loois, secretary, L. D. Fergesen, treasurer. James Law and Merle Roiney were the faculty sponsors.

The purpose of the club is to hold the fellows together and to create friendship, religious, and racial tolerance; to help each person better understand his neighbor and, therefore, live a Christian, democratic life.

The meetings are held every other Thursday at the meeting rooms of the Y.M.C.A. A few special meetings were held at the high school and the annual picnic is held at the lodge in Eagle Point Park.

The activities of the club were the organization and supervision of a stand under the stadium; the donation of the stand with all its facilities to the Band Parents' Club for the biggest night of the year, the Homecoming Football game, the proceeds of which were used toward uniforms for the band. One hundred dollars was spent for new equipment for the stand. Officials of each football game were treated to hot dogs and coffee by the Hi-Y.

One hundred dollars was donated for new uniforms for the cheer leaders.

Hi-Y Club furnished one-half of the Christmas and Easter programs for the Assemblies. A Christmas tree with decorations was set up in the front hall.

Special joint meetings were held with Lyons Hi-Y to discuss Civic improvement. The speakers were Mr. Maxheim from the Legion, Mr. Fitch from the Park Board, Mr. Carlson from the City government, and Mr. Streit from the Clinton Herald. A meeting was also held for the understanding and furtherance of religious tolerance. The speakers were a rabbi, priest, and a protestant minister.

There were several meetings with pot luck meals, pie supper and an annual picnic.

Visits were made to the local radio station and the city council, when it was in session.

Hi-Y had a basketball team and joined the National Hi-Y Association.

Bachelors' Club

The officers this year of the Bachelors' Club were Dick Coe, president; John Christian, vice-president; Bob Andrews, treasurer. Paul Sharar, Owen Fishwild, and Ray Doyne were the executive board members. The sponsor was Miss Isabelle Streib.

All senior boys may join the Bachelors' Club. They met in Study Hall A each second and fourth Thursday of the month, at 8:20 to 8:42 in the morning.

The chief activities of the year are keeping the campus clean; improving personality, through discussion meetings; sponsoring an all school dance, and entertaining at a spring dinner dance.

The insignia of the club is represented by a skull and cross bones. The jewelry is a gold skull charm, which can be purchased by the members of the club.

Y-Teens

Officers of Y-Teens were Vicky Baker, president; Audrey Jessen, vice-president; Carol Benson, secretary; Helen Feddersen, treasurer; and Miss Nellie F. Jones, faculty adviser.

The Committee Chairmen and Co-chairmen were Jackie Griswold, Chmn., Alice Neff, Sally Rehnberg, program; Barbara Hollowell, Chmn., Nanette Pieper, Mary Jeanne Dunn, social; Susan Lynn, Chmn., Grace Foster, publicity; Alyce Stroh, Chmn., Mary Ann Pearson, finance; Martha Hempstead, insignia; Shirley Obermiller, social service; Dorla Dannatt, world fellowship; Cherol Burde, Chmn., Carla Jess, music; Betty Barnard, Chmn., Lora Jackson, dramatics, and Nancy Peckham, reporter.

Y-Teens, originally Student Club, is now twenty-nine years old, and is affiliated with local, district, state, and national Y.W.C.A. Youth organizations. The club purpose sets two goals: growth as a person; growth in friendship with persons of all races, religions, and nationalities.

As a high school club Y-Teens is democratic in membership, as every Clinton High School girl is eligible, and is urged to join. The membership fee is fifty cents per year. For many years it has been the largest high school club. A special effort is made in Y-Teens to provide a feeling of "belonging" for each girl who joins.

School meetings are held the second and fourth Thursdays of the month in the auditorium. Other meetings, of various groups, may be held at the local Y.W.C.A., when called for a special purpose.

The outstanding programs for the school year 1948-49 include talent programs; Mrs. Pauline Meyer Brown's talk on "Care of the Hair," Christmas and Easter worship services with the help of the H-Y club; and one movie of special interest to girls. Some club members assisted with the "Hanging of the Greens" Christmas program at the Y.W.C.A. The main social events include a "Santa-Mental" (Christmas) Party, a Valentine Party, February 5, a mixer, "The Flounder's Fling," January 21; a Mother's Tea, November 25, with a movie, "How to Choose a Silver Pattern," and a social event for the senior members in May.

The annual Christmas was remarkably successful. With the assistance of Mrs. Ruth Pike of the Clinton Benevolent Society a family of eight children was treated to a bountiful Christmas donation of money, warm clothing, toys, fruit, and candy.

Another project is the raising of money for sending girls to summer conferences. Last year, 1948, was the first year for the "Gypsy Trip," in which several C.H.S. club members joined. Another trip is being planned for the summer of 1949.

During the summer of 1948, Mary Louise Reed, Sally Rehnberg, Peggy Hansen, Vicky Baker, and Mrs. H. H. Kiehne attended the Summer Y-Teen Conference at Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa. The Fall Area Conference was held in October at the Ottumwa Y.W.C.A., in Ottumwa, Iowa. Cherol Burde, Lora Jane Jackson, Vicky Baker, and Mrs. Kiehne attended this conference. The State Planning Committee for the Summer Conferences was held December 11, 1948, at the Des Moines Y.M.C.A., Des Moines, Iowa, and was attended by Vicky Baker.

Science Club

The first and third Thursdays of each month the Science Club met in Room 224 at 3:15.

The Club attempted to promote an interest in science. Membership was open to all who showed an interest in science and who indicated a willingness to work for additional knowledge.

Some members worked on individual projects during the year. All members took part in experiments during the meetings. There were also reports and demonstrations by members of the club. A few scientific films were viewed.

Officers of the Science Club were James Malone, president; Bill Long, vice-president; Dianne Flannery, secretary, and Mr. Jones, sponsor.

Projection and Sound Crew

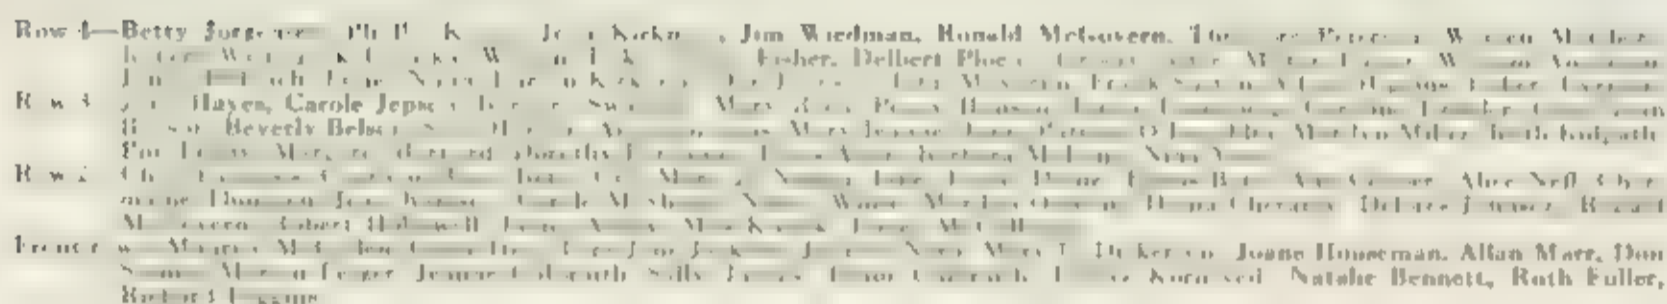

Members of the club are LeVerne Hollister, the chief; Harry Amesbury, Bill Brauer, Marvin Brown, Adolf Wildfang, Jim Malone, Lloyd Peterson, Wayne Wait, Don Shepard, and David Adams. Mr. Robert Wagstaff is the sponsor.

The only requirements to join this activity is a desire to learn and an interest in sound equipment and movie projectors. The boys are all Juniors and Seniors except Jim Malone and David Adams, who are on the crew to gain experience for next year.

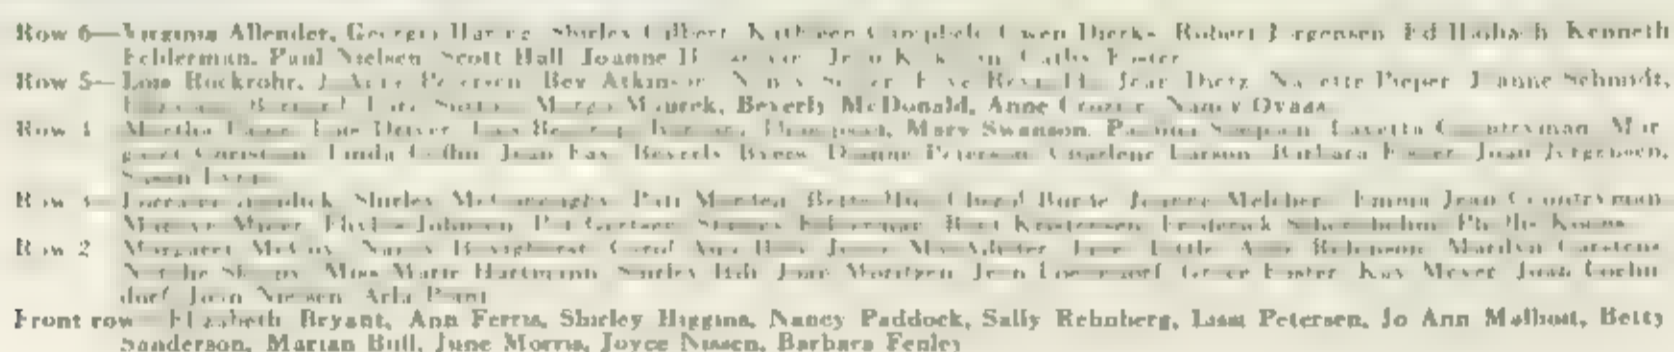

The boys meet in the morning in Mr. Wagstaff's room to get the orders for the day. Then there is a mad dash to get "mikes", screens, and projectors set up in the classrooms and the auditorium before school starts. Mr. Wagstaff then makes out slips to excuse the boys from study hall. Each boy has a different study hall, so that there is at least one boy free every period of the day.

The duties of the sound crew are to run movies in classrooms; to set up "P.A." (public address) systems for club, assemblies and special programs; to run noon movies; provide records and record player for noon dancing; to provide music for school dances after football games; and to run loud speakers on the field during football games.

Sextet II, composed of Ruth Fuller, Grace Iten, Sopranos; Marilyn Ward, Cherol Burde, Second Sopranos; Carol Benson and Nanette Peiper, Altos, appeared before the Daughters of the American Revolution, American Legion Auxiliary, Amvet Auxiliary, school programs and Swing Show.

Groups

Sextet III was composed of Freshmen girls only. They sang for P.T.A.s, school programs, etc. The members were Margaret Christian, Nina Yealy, Sopranos; Carolyn Hebel, Jo Ann Jess, Second Sopranos; Lois Latimer, and Ruth Best, Altos.

This year another new group was added to the Music Department, called the Madrigal. In this group were Mary Reed, Alice Neff, Arden Cummings, Charlene Bray, Alice Robinson, Virginia Brown, Fred Schoenhahn, Charles Bryant, Don Shepard, and Gene Sullivan. They sang at school and community affairs.

Octet I is composed of Bob McDermott, Gene Sullivan, Bob Loots, John Christian, Keith McRoberts, Paul Shwarz, Dick DeLoe, and Henry Clark. These boys appeared at various civic and social functions including King's Daughters, Y.W.C.A., and Schick Hospital, school programs, concerts and the Swing Show.

Boys' Octet II had only freshman boys which included Jerry Boulton, Dick Higgins, Jim McCullough, Bill Clark, John Maxheim, Peter Klopp, Ronald Koch, and John Van Epps. Their appearances were at P.T.A.s, school programs, assemblies, and Swing Show.

Band

Band was a regular subject for members this year and counted as a full credit. The band met in the auditorium sixth period every day.

Officers were Charles Booth, president; Owen Fishwild, vice-president; and Vicky Baker, secretary-treasurer. Director was Roger O. Stoskopf.

The band's appearances included all home town football games, one in Moline, Homecoming, Education Week concert, Fall Opening, Fulton Fall Festival, Sunday afternoon concert, and the annual spring concert.

It was host to the Dubuque, Burlington, and Davenport bands for the Mississippi Valley Music Festival in May. This was the first time the festival had been in Clinton, and the whole music department participated.

The Pep Band played for pep assemblies and a special Basketball Band performed at basketball games.

For the first time since 1934, new uniforms were purchased for the band by the Band and Orchestra Parents' Club. These were first worn at the Homecoming game.

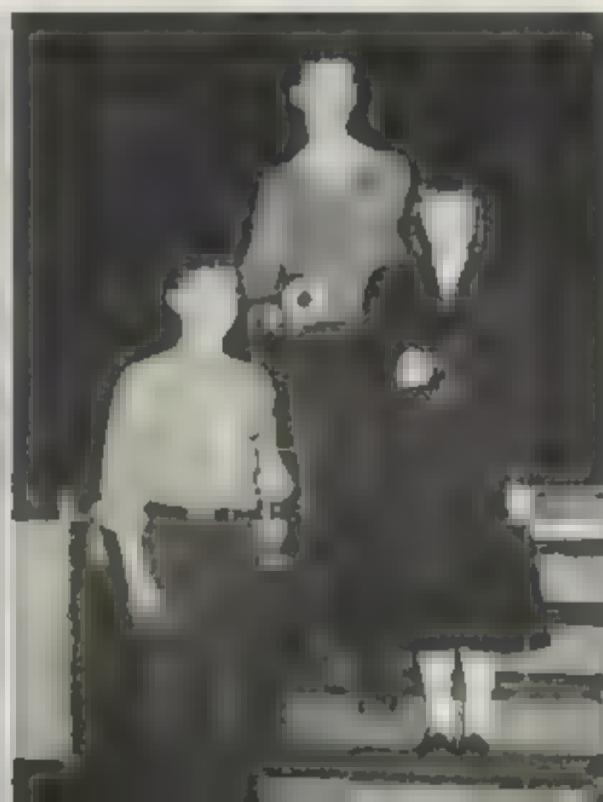

Major letters were awarded to John Paxton, Eugene Praschan, Nancy Paddock, Charles Madden, and Ronald Smith. Letters were awarded for 1000 points and pins were awarded for 1500 points.

The drum major and majorettes led the marching band in all appearances. Drum majorettes were Juniors, Geraldine Edens, and Joyce Nissen; Sophomores, Delores Cheramy and Phyllis Buelow; and Freshmen, Jo Ann Zirbes and Sally Jacobs. Drum major was William Lepird. This group also received new uniforms.

Football

The River Kings defeated the Roughriders, 6 to 0, in their first game of the season. The Kings out-played their hosts by a wide margin, although the score does not show this. In the statistics it was very one-sided.

The Kings threatened twice before scoring, but were plagued by fumbles. They scored in the fourth quarter on a pass from the eight-yard line by Don Stamp to L. D. Fergesen, who leaped high between two defenders to score. The conversion, attempted by Fergesen, was too low and consequently blocked.

The entire Clinton line showed up well defensively as the Roughriders made only one first down.

The River Kings were no match for the Rock Islanders in the first home contest on Coan field, September 17, when Coach Almquist snapped a string of three victories with a 26 to 0 victory. The Islanders capitalized on an early fumble to gain an edge which they held throughout.

Clinton's only serious scoring threat of the night came in the fourth quarter when they went to the three, but failed to score. The loss breaks a string of eleven Clinton victories and is the first loss since the Wilson game in 1946.

The Franklin Thunderbolts, Cedar Rapids, handed the Kings their first conference defeat, 13 to 7, here, September 24. The River Kings made a determined try for victory in the second half and not only scored but reached the 17 yard line before being turned back.

On the series of plays in the fourth quarter that set up the Red and Black touchdown, pass interference was charged against Franklin when a pass from Donald Stamp to Kenneth Felderman was broken up in the end zone. The ball was given to Clinton on the one-yard line, and Hans Andresen went over for the score. L. D. Fergesen converted for the extra point. Clinton's passes threatened in the rest of the game, but a timely interception stopped Clinton's last effort.

The River Kings threw a scare into a highly touted St. Ambrose team, October 2, in an unexpectedly tight game at Davenport, but Clinton lost, 14 to 6.

Three quarters went by without either team scoring. St. Ambrose's main offensive cog was Jack McKinney, fleet halfback. In statistics St. Ambrose was ahead, but many fans thought the Clinton line and the hard-running backs, Andresen and Neisslie looked superior. Clinton amazed 3000 fans by holding a bigger, faster, and more powerful eleven for three quarters and more.

With five seconds to play Clinton relied on the passing of Donald Stamp to push across a touchdown. The scoring play was a pass from Stamp to Donald Ramig, reserve end, for twelve yards. Felderman's dropkick was blocked.

The Clinton High River Kings had an unhappy Homecoming when the Blue Devils defeated the Red and Black, 20 to 0. The Imps won for the fifth consecutive time, and it was the Kings' fourth straight loss.

One misfortune came early in the second quarter. It was Clinton's ball on the Imps' 26-yard line, following a steady march from the visitors' 45-yard line. Hans Andresen, lugging the ball for the Kings, was injured on the next play and left the game. Right after this an attempted handoff was grabbed by Ed Lindsey, Davenport left end, who broke into the clear and sprinted 65 yards for a touchdown.

That was the turning point of the game. With Andresen out, the Kings' offensive was crippled.

Midway through the third period, Clinton made its deepest penetration of the night. The Kings shoved the Imps to their own three-yard line. The Devils kicked, and Clinton brought the ball to Davenport's 37-yard line. Don Stamp threw a pass to Alex Grayes, who carried the ball to the 24-yard line. Stamp carried it to the 22-yard line where the attack fizzled.

Clinton High's River Kings ended the home part of their 1948 football schedule, October 16, with a 12 to 0 loss to Wilson of Cedar Rapids. It was the fifth straight defeat for the Red and Black. For Wilson it was the fourth win against two set-backs.

Clinton did not threaten seriously at any time, but they kept the heavier Ramblers battling in mid-field through most of the contest.

Defensive play highlighted the game with a total of 160 yards rushing and 29 yards of passing.

The Clinton High River Kings were defeated by the Iowa City Hawks, 27 to 0. This was the King's sixth straight loss this season, their fourth conference defeat against a lone win.

The River Kings put on two offensive drives spearheaded by the hard running of Hans Andresen, but both times the Hawkelets stiffened their defense to stop the Kings on the Iowa City 25-yard line.

The Dubuque Rams had a successful Dad's night by beating the Clinton River Kings 33 to 6, on October 29.

The Dubuque eleven used a terrific ground attack to score all five of their touchdowns. The Kings were hampered by the disadvantage in weight in the line. Dubuque was reported to average 200 pounds while the Kings averaged 165.

The Kings were forced to go to an aerial attack in the final stanza. This attack set up their only tally.

Bernard Eckland toted the pigskin over from the Dubuque two to give the Kings their first touchdown since the St. Ambrose game.

The Clinton High River Kings closed their 1948 football season at Moline with their eighth straight loss, at the hands of the Moline Maroons, 48 to 7.

Clinton got its only chance to score when Moline fumbled on their own four-yard line. Robert Hansen, sophomore fullback, plunged over and David Johnson converted for the extra point.

Junior Football

Boys from the Junior class played five football games during the 1948 season. They played the Juniors from Davenport two games, and Moline one game. They played the Lyons reserves and the Maquoketa first team one game.

The Juniors won all five games. These same Juniors played as reserves and on the varsity all season.

The starters for the Kings were usually David Johnson and Donald Ramig, ends; Thomas Berdan and Robert Trent, tackles; Robert Jaeger and Wayne Cheramy, guards; James Holle, center; Donald Stamp, quarterback; Alex Grayes and Jerry Neisslie, halfbacks; Bernard Eckland, fullback.

Football

Hans Andresen, Senior. Hans played four years of football for Clinton High School and the last two years he was on the first team. He played halfback and fullback on offense and was a line backer on defense. He acted as captain during his senior year. Hans was a fine blocker, tackler and line plunger.

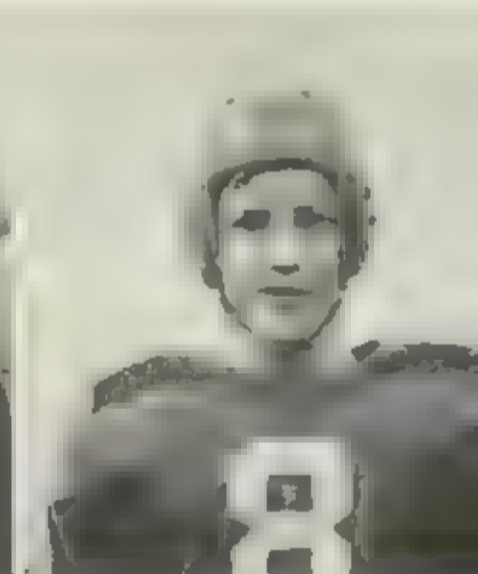

Robert Andrews, Senior. Bob played right half during his senior year and was out for football each session. He is a hard runner and tackler and a good passer.

Thomas Berdan, Junior. Tom played first string right tackle. He is a good all around player and should do well next fall.

Jack Carstensen, Senior. Jack played reserve right end.

William Christiansen, Junior. Bill played quarter back and end on offense and a halfback on defense. He is one of the best pass catchers on the squad and the one he caught at St. Ambrose will long be remembered.

David Colschen, Senior. Dave played right guard and gave his best at all times. Much of the ground gained was through holes which he and Berdan made.

Bernard Eckland, Junior. "Bub" played fullback for the River Kings. He loves football and should be a big help to the team next fall. He scored against Dubuque for the Kings.

Kenneth Felderman, Senior. Kenny played quarterback and left halfback and made a lot of good tackles during the season. We will all remember the tackle he made on Ritter of Dubuque.

L. D. Fergesen, Senior. L. D. played right end and made the winning touchdown at Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids on a pass. He kicked off and kicked the extra points. He was chosen on the All Conference team because of his fine defensive play.

Alex Grayes, Junior. Al started the season as the regular left halfback. He ran well against Roosevelt but sprained an ankle and did not run well again until the end of the season. Al played his best defensive game at St. Ambrose where he made several good tackles.

James Holle, Junior. Jim was a reserve guard and center last fall and was best on offense. He can start quickly and can pull out and block well.

Robert Jaeger, Junior. Bob played reserve guard last fall. He has the build and power to be a good player next year.

Donald Ramig, Junior. Don played reserve left end. He is a fine pass receiver and caught a pass in the St. Ambrose game for a touchdown. He is also a good place kicker.

Edward Thompson, Junior. Ed played reserve right end. He is one of the best defensive players on the squad and is a fine tackler.

Paul Sharar, Senior. Paul played the first string left end position. He is a good blocker and tackler.

Donald Stamp, Sophomore. Don played offensive quarterback most of the time for the River Kings. He is a fine passer. He passed to Fergesen and Ramig for touchdowns and passed to other players for valuable gains. Don did most of the punting for the team and averaged thirty-five yards for the season.

Robert Trent, Junior. Bob played reserve center and tackle and should be a help to the team next fall.

Victor Winkelman, Senior. Vic played defensive guard in many of the games last fall. He did not come out for football until his senior year but played a good game.

Lettermen

David Johnson, Junior. Dave played left tackle and right end, and was a good blocker and tackler. Also a fine place kicker, he will handle that job next fall.

Lauren Kramer, Senior. Pat played his second year as the regular center for the River Kings. He was chosen as co-captain with Andresen for the season and was on the All Conference team. He was an accurate passer and fine defensive player.

Robert Lueders, Senior. Bob played left guard on offense and left tackle on defense. His work in the line made him a standout in each game.

Holger Lund, Junior. Holger played reserve halfback. He is a good passer, receiver, and runner.

Robert McGill, Junior. Bob played right tackle on offense and right guard on defense. He is fast for a big man and charges hard.

Jerry Neisslie, Junior. Jerry played regular right half the last part of the season. He is a fast starter and had more speed than anyone on the team. He ran especially well against St. Ambrose.

Homecoming Queen

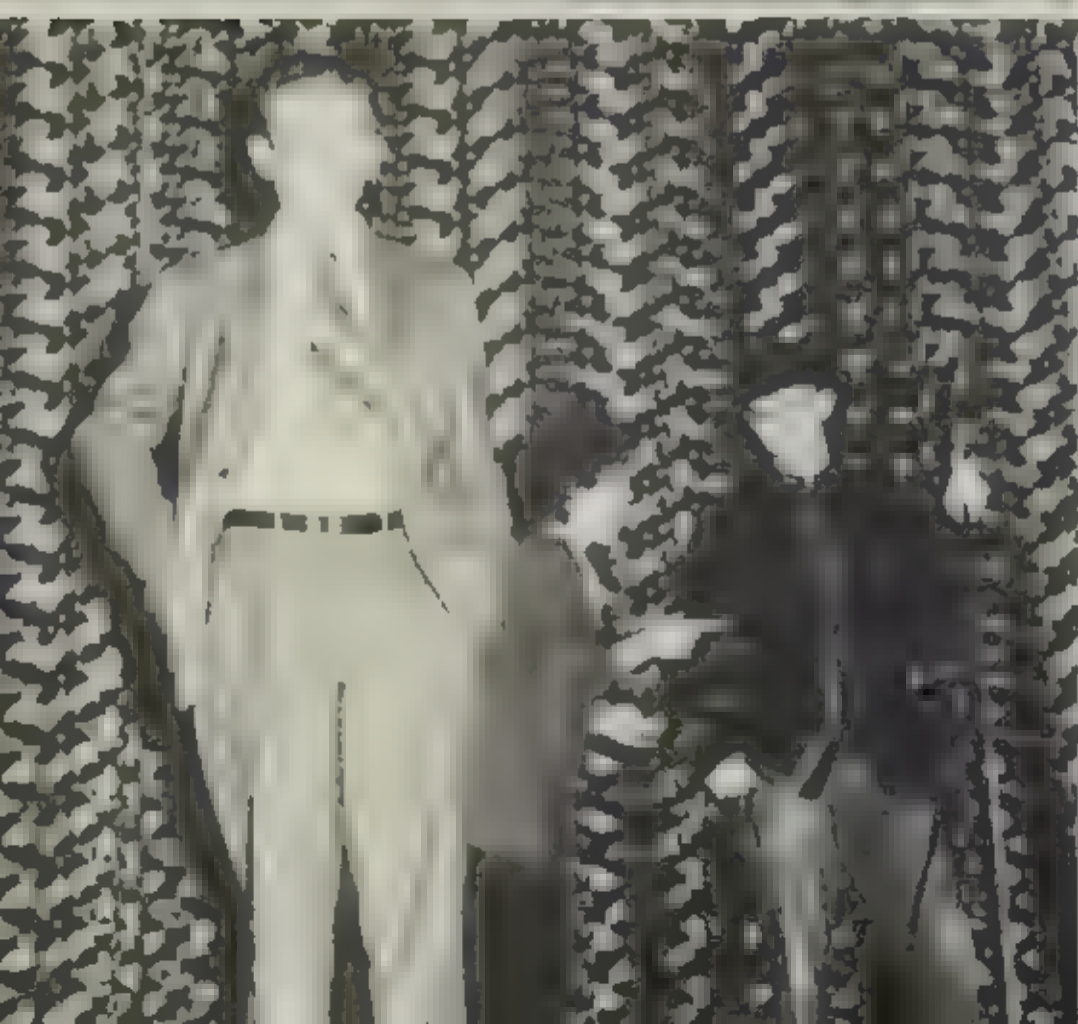

Home

The Homecoming festivities began with the crowning of the Queen, Vicky Baker, on Thursday, October 7. Hans Andresen crowned the Queen during a special assembly. Her attendants were Josie Barker, Senior, Linné Kornlyed, Junior, Becky Knudsen, Sophomore, and Margaret Christain, Freshman. In the evening, after a blazing bonfire, the snake-dance led to a pep rally at the Capitol Theatre. The movie shown was "Up In Central Park."

The next afternoon the Homecoming parade was held, displaying heroic RIVER KINGS and the poor little weak Blue Devils. The winning float was displayed by Mr. Mc Mahon's freshman homeroom. The theme was "Lady Luck." Second prize went to Miss Abraham's sophomore homeroom, whose theme was "Lula". "Davenport the Underdog" was the theme for Mr. Wilson's building trade class which took third place. Honorable mention went to Miss Mathisen's seniors for their float, "To the Slaughter", and Miss Davidson's juniors who used the idea, "Lick The Suckers".

The evening proceeded with Davenport defeating Clinton 20-0. After the game, we all drowned our sorrows, at the Annual Homecoming Dance. Music was furnished by the Sportsmen.

Varsity Swimming

The Clinton High School swimmers started the season with only four seniors on the squad. They were Richard Coe, Charles Madden, Robert Jorgensen, and Robert Purcell. Later in the season, Merle Ruch, also a senior, joined the squad. They lost their first meet to Oak Park High of Chicago by one point and successive ones to Proviso of Chicago, North of Des Moines, Roosevelt of Des Moines, and East Rockford.

West Rockford was the only team beaten by the swimmers during the regular season. Following this victory, they lost meets to New Trier of Chicago and also to West Rockford before the state meet. Although the River Kings lost seven of eight dual meets, they did swim against the best teams in the middle west. In spite of those losses, they improved with each meet and reached their peak in the state swimming meet at the University of Iowa on February 19, 1949.

Prior to the state meet, Jack Quick, Jorgensen, Purcell, and David Holleran had been the most consistent performers. Quick was beaten only once during the entire season.

At the state meet, all the boys on the squad really showed determination and the desire to be state champions. In addition to the four previously mentioned swimmers, the performances of Albert Higgins, Ruch, Coe, Madden, Bert Winterbottom, James McComb, Arthur Murphy, Pat Beardslee, Vernon Lass, and Maurice McCullen were also noteworthy.

Clinton High School has probably had teams with more skill and speed and also teams with more depth, but no Clinton High School swimming team has ever competed harder against greater odds. Every boy did better than he had all season and these boys should be congratulated for their determination and perseverance. The feat which they accomplished startled everyone in the middle west and their record will long be an inspiration to future teams in Clinton High School.

Varsity letters were awarded to Beardslee, Coe, Higgins, Holleran, Jorgensen, Lass, McComb, McCullen, Madden, Murphy, Purcell, Quick, Ruch, and Winterbottom.

Minor awards went to Thomas Petrehn and Louis Shew.

Those who received Sophomore letters were William Anderson, Richard Curtis, Robert Hollowell, Howard Judd, Burton Kirkman, James McCullough, William McKinley, Elmer Nelson, James Nunn, Milton Pieper, William Williams.

Varsity Wrestling

The Clinton High School wrestling squad defeated Maquoketa 36-8 in the first meet of the season, dropping only two matches. The second team lost 23-20.

The River Kings posted their second victory of the season as the Burlington Greyhounds absorbed a 26-16 defeat.

The Clinton matmen added their third win of the season at the expense of Proviso 24-14.

With Blount and Lueders winning in their classes, the Kings finished second in the Davenport Invitational Tournament. Three placed second and one, third.

Still undefeated in dual meet competition, the grapplers posted their fourth straight win, 33-10, over McKinley of Cedar Rapids.

Winning three bouts by falls and two by decisions, the wrestlers defeated Rock Island 27-19.

With the aid of a victory in the final match, the Kings edged Maquoketa 24-17 and extended their undefeated string of victories to six.

Clinton picked up 19 points as they placed fourth in the Mississippi Valley Conference meet. Darryl Blinkinsop won a crown at 123 pounds.

Davenport handed the Clinton High wrestling squad its first loss in seven dual meets when they turned back the River Kings 21-16.

Scoring only two victories, the Kings lost their second straight meet by a score of 30-10 at West Waterloo.

Getting back on the victory trail, the grapplers defeated Burlington 25-8 for their seventh dual meet success against two losses.

The wrestling squad made it two straight over Rock Island in dual meets as they won by a score of 25 to 18.

Major letters were awarded to Floyd Leonard 118, Marvin Jewell 105, Donald Adkisson 112, David Colschen heavyweight, Darryl Blinkinsop 123, Howard Blount 129, Richard Hickenbottom 135, Leroy Cleppe 145, Robert Lueders 165, Wayne Cheramy heavyweight, and Lauren Kramer 155.

Those who received minor letters were Garry Dithmart 123, James Grayes 95, Robert Andrews 145, Jack Kuehl 118, Eugene Zirbes 165, and Alvin Campie 130.

Freshman letter winners were William Titus 95, Allan Horn 112, Jack King 95, Kenneth Haddad 95, Donald Heavilin 129, and John Gool 155.

A string of five straight victories in the lower weights earned Davenport a 21 to 11 victory over the Kings. This was their second win over Clinton this year.

Winning all but three matches the wrestlers swamped Moline 31 to 9.

Moline was defeated 35 to 11 for their second loss against the River Kings this year. Clinton scored four falls and five decisions.

This ended the regular season with ten dual meet wins and three losses.

Clinton placed third in the district meet at Davenport with 23 points as they qualified five men for the state meet at Mason City. Robert Lueders copped the crown at 165 pounds and Darryl Blinkinsop, 123 pounds, Howard Blount, 129 pounds, Richard Hickenbottom, 135 pounds, and Lauren Kramer, 155 pounds placed second.

Lueders, Kramer, and Hickenbottom were defeated in the first round of competition in the state high school wrestling meet. Blinkinsop and Blount, who both pinned their men in the opening round, lost in the semi-finals.

Varsity Basketball

The River Kings started the season with only two letter-men and they had not seen full time action last year. The remainder of the squad was made up of minor letter winners and boys from last year's Sophomore team. The schedule this year was probably the toughest one ever played by a Clinton High School basketball team. Despite the rough schedule and the lack of experience, the team came through with twelve victories in twenty-two starts, and advanced to the sub-state before being stopped in the tournament.

Clinton eagles opened their season by whipping the Dixon Dukes 36-35 in a nip and tuck affair. Charlie Holm clinched the contest with a charity toss in the last twenty seconds.

In the second game of the season, the Kings staged one of the greatest comebacks ever seen here; after being behind at half-time 23-6, they eked a 32-30 win over Burlington.

After a surprising first half in which the River Kings were leading 22-21, they slipped in the second half to be beaten by the Blue Devils of Davenport 56-37.

In the last 12 seconds, Bobby Witt scored a basket and free throw to give the Clinton five their third win by a score of 38-37 over West Waterloo.

The Kings hit their highest total of the year as they out-classed Wilson of Cedar Rapids 66-49. Four men scored over ten points for Clinton and a total of 54 fouls were called.

Clinton suffered its first loss on the home court when Beloit turned the trick, 44-41. This left the record at four wins and two losses.

Defensive play was featured as the Kings rallied to defeat the Muskies 33-28. The two teams got only a total of seventy-seven shots at the basket. Nine men figured in the scoring for the Kings.

Iowa City's height and scoring punch were too much for the River Kings as Diehl and Hettrick each scored 23 points. The score was 61-49.

A long set shot defeated the Clinton eagles 33-31 after they had rallied to tie the score at 31-31 with fifty seconds left at Dubuque.

Finding the range from all angles and using their fast break to good advantage, the Kings swept by East Waterloo 59-34. They scored 23 points in a red hot third quarter.

After an ice cold first quarter in which they scored only six points, the Kings finally stopped Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids 37-32.

Kewanee rallied in the second half to defeat Clinton in a non-conference game 62-45, after trailing at the half 25-20. Five men fouled out for the Kings.

Davenport hit a terrific percentage in the second half to defeat the River Kings 59-39.

Two free throws in the final 15 seconds by the Franklin center gave his team a one point victory, 36-35, over the Kings.

The Dubuque Rams late rally fell short and the River Kings won their fifth game in the conference 46-40. The score was 10-1 in the first four minutes and 28-17 at the half in favor of Clinton.

Playing one of their better games of the season, the River Kings scored a major upset as they defeated Joliet 46-38. The winners led 24-22 at the half.

After leading 31-23 at the half, Iowa City poured it on in the second half to win 63-48.

A last-half rally by the Boone Torreadors tripped the Kings 53-38 after the losers had led at one time 13-0.

Clinton rallied to beat McKinley 54-46 as they poured in the points in the second half. The lead changed hands several times in a blistering fourth quarter.

In a game which was not decided until the final minute, the Kings edged Muscatine 43-42. The Muskies led 23-11 at one point.

This ended the regular season with a total of 11 wins and 9 losses.

The River Kings defeated the Muskies 39-33 in the first game of the tournament and it was Muscatine's third straight defeat at the hands of Clinton. The game was rated a toss-up but Clinton's defense limited its opponent to only one field goal in the second half.

Davenport was too much for the Kings in the first game of the sub-state and they won 47-31. Neither team hit a very high percentage but the Imps took more shots.

Basketball Lettermen

L. D. Fergeson, lanky senior pivot man, and one of two returning lettermen on this year's squad, scored 251 points this season, finishing fourth in the Mississippi Valley Conference. Drive-in shots around the basket were his specialty. He received honorable mention on the I.D.P.A. all-state selection.

Hans Andresen, senior guard, was also a returning letter-winner. He was a rugged rebounder, and also intercepted many of the opponents' passes.

Jack Carstensen, senior, played his first year of varsity competition. He was the playmaker of the team and third highest scorer.

Bill Christiansen, junior forward, and second highest scorer of the squad, was outstanding as an offensive rebounder and the team's most consistent long-shooter.

Bobbie Witt, forward, was the first sophomore to find a starting berth since Dan Burrige in 1943. Bobbie's speed made him an aggressive defensive player. He was also an adept dribbler and ball-handler.

Don Ramig, junior center, was a rugged rebounder and consistent scorer. He showed steady improvement throughout the season and was especially outstanding in the victory over Muscatine in the district tourney.

Alex Grayes, speedy junior forward, came into his own the latter part of the season. His fireball type of play sparked the team. (No picture.)

Jim Halle, scrappy junior guard, saw considerable action throughout the season, specializing in ball-control situations.

Kenny Felderman, senior forward, was called upon when the situation called for a pressing defense.

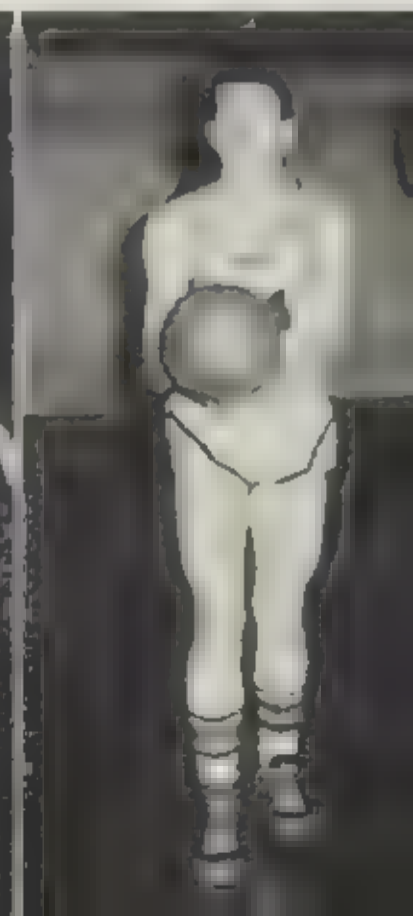

Jim Fisher, husky sophomore guard, had a good basket eye and was a rugged rebounder.

Chuck Holmes, junior forward, scored the winning point in the Dixon game. He was a good set shot.

Dick Goers, junior guard, was a steady performer, often called upon in a reserve role.

Eddie Thompson, junior, and Dick Cruder, senior, received minor letters.

Sophomore-Freshman Basketball

The Little Kings completed a successful basketball season winning twelve games and losing only six. In the Mississippi Valley conference, the Sophomore cagers won nine and dropped three to place third in the loop standings. Robert Hansen was the Valley scoring leader while Donald Stamp placed fourth in this department. Regular starters were Delbert Ploen and Chris Panousis at forwards, Hansen at center, and Allan Marr and Stamp at guards. Able reserves who also received letters were Harold Gaarde, James Weidman, and Jack Utroska.

The freshman basketball team had some hard luck this year as they lost all but two games. Eight of the losses were by five points or less and only two were by more than ten points. The usual starting lineup included Robert Pearson at center, Stanley Felderman and Philip Leahy at the forwards; and Ronald Koch guards. Others who played were James Ashby, Richard Seagren, John Maxheim, and Peter Klopp. The manager was George Striley.

Pollywogs

The pollywogs were organized to promote interest and skill in swimming. Tryouts were held in February and every high school girl who had completed a Junior or Senior Life Saving Course was eligible. The new members were chosen by three faculty judges on their ability to dive and execute various strokes.

The club met every Wednesday night after school and their activities included ballet swimming, racing, recreational swimming, and diving. This year the club swam for the junior carnival, and on Championship Night. They also co-sponsored the Polly-Pep formal dance, April 9.

The officers of the club were Margo Maurek, president; Susan Lynn, vice-president; and Nanette Peiper, secretary-treasurer. Their sponsor was Miss Matthews.

G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association is a member of the state organization and had a local membership of over one hundred girls. The officers were Gwen Fuller, president; Mary Jo Nelson, vice president; and Dorothy Patten, secretary-treasurer. The cabinet included Colette Storms, Carolyn Stamp, Janice Hardersen, Jean Bentley, Beverly Belson, Joan Lorenz, Marion Leonard, Shirley Hickenbottom, and Nancy Hardersen.

A letter award is given to those who have earned 500 points; a chevron for seven hundred points; and a state pin is awarded to those who earn one thousand points.

The club met in the gymnasium or outside every Tuesday night for an activity period. They also sponsored a bowling league which met downtown and in which nine teams of forty-five girls bowled regularly. The chief activities included hockey, basketball, bowling, volleyball, swimming, softball, and badminton.

The girls sponsored the Spinsters' Spree and also gave a Mother-Daughter tea. At this tea, awards were given for the best girl athlete and the best sportsman. The letters and pins were also distributed.

Track

A total of seventeen letter winners were included on the roster of 120 candidates which started the season under Coach Max Linn. Three of the veterans were sophomores while seven were juniors and seven, seniors. A sophomore squad which won the conference last year was also on hand in addition to the several minor letter winners and fall track men.

Dubuque edged the Kings in the Mississippi Valley Conference indoor track meet 52½ to 51½. It marked the first year that a school other than Davenport or Clinton had won the meet. Jerry Neissie copped a first place in the broad jump for Clinton's only first. Meanwhile, Dubuque won five events.

50 yard dash Thomas Burlingame, fourth. 60-yard high hurdles L. D. Jorgesen, third, Robert Hansen, fourth; Alex Graves, fifth. 60-yard low hurdles Graves, second; Neissie, fourth. 200-yard run William Christensen, fifth. Shot put, Hans Andresen, second. 440 yard relay Clinton, Hansen, Burlingame, Neissie, and David Holleran, fourth. Mile relay Clinton, Keith McRoberts, Robert Jorgensen, Edward Thompson, Holleran, second. High jump Jack Hill, second.

Ninety

Paul Sharar, third. Pole vault Neisslie tied for second. Mile Medley Relay Clinton (McRoberts, Burlingame, Chris Panousis, Jorgensen), fourth. Broad jump Neisslie, first Sharar, third.

The River Kings garnered only 15-5/7 points to place ninth as Burlington copped the state class A indoor track meet. Those placing for Clinton were:

Neisslie-fourth in the broad jump. Holleran-third in the 440-yard run. Fergesen fourth in the high hurdles. Hansen-fifth in the high hurdles. Hill-tied for third in the high jump. Sharar tied for third in the high jump. Mile relay (McRoberts, Jorgensen, Burlingame, Holleran), third.

The River King trackmen defeated Davenport 113½ to 91½ as they showed strength in every event except the mile and the half mile. Clinton placed first in 11 of the 15 events. Fergesen, Neisslie and Holleran were all double winners. The sophomores also won 115½ to 89½.

Tennis

The Clinton High School tennis team started the season with a nucleus of four major letter winners. The schedule consisted of seven dual meets and the conference and district meets.

Major letter winners on hand were Jack Carstensen, Richard Coe, Jack Krebs, and Robert Schmitz.

Others who reported were Rodney Schroeder, Jack Quick, James McCullough, Ronald Sloy, Richard Pape, Eugene Vining, Theodore Peterson, Louis Jurgensen, Robert Louts, and David Bowersox.

Krebs, Coe, McCullough, Schroeder, Carstensen.

The Clinton tennis team dropped its opening dual meet to Davenport 7-0.

Dubuque beat the River King net team 7-1; Jack Carstensen was the lone winner for Clinton.

The River King tennis team avenged a previous defeat at the hands of Dubuque as they tied 3-3 in a meet held at home. The Kings were leading in the last set, but it was called because of darkness.

UNION COLLEGE

The spirit that's sure to glory old Clinton's name—

Junior College Sophomores

Row 2. Herbert Jensen, Ralph Melstrom, Robert Warr, Dean Goulden, Don Smith, Hilton Jones, Ray Nielsen, Ted Gravesen.

Junior College Basketball

The Junior College basketball team played a 12 game schedule, winning three and losing nine. The schedule included Webster City and Muscatine, the finalists in the State Junior College Tournament.

The team lacked experience, with only Verne Drews returning from the Husker's Squad of 1947-48. Jack Holcomb of Clinton High and Dick Marlow, of Lyons, both Freshmen, rounded out the experienced members of the squad.

The Huskers improved from game to game especially when Jack Holcomb reported for regular play the second semester.

The high light of the season was the Husker's near upset of Washington on the local court in which the Husker's lost 63-66.

Verne Drews, Dick Townsley, Ray Gilbert, Jack Holcomb, and Dick Marlow were the starting five with dependable Bob Simpson being called on for relief duty. Verne Drews was elected honorary captain of the 1948-49 Huskers.

Guard-Jack Holcomb: 6 feet, 2 inches. 17.3 game average, a good shot from court but specialized in hard drive-ins for set-ups.

Guard-Dick Marlow: 5 feet, 11 inches. The leading scorer on the squad with 10.9 average, best long shooter on the team.

Center-Ray Gilbert: 6 feet, 2 inches. Featured a one hand shot from the side of the court, outstanding on defensive rebounds, most improved player on the squad.

Forward-Verne Drews: 6 feet, 1 inch. Hard working forward, specialized in team play and an accurate side shot from 20 feet out.

Forward-Dick Townsley: 5 feet, 11 inches. Clever dribbler, liked to shoot from foul line, played best game against Boone.

Clinton Junior College

Clinton Junior College offers to the youth of this area having an interest and talent for college two years of education beyond high school. Men and women continue in school beyond the twelfth grade to extend their growth in skill and personality, to enrich their relationships with home and community, and to widen their way to economic security.

The college offers the Liberal Arts subjects found in the first two years of senior colleges and universities, also pre-professional and terminal subjects for the vocations. The college is approved by the State Department of Public Instruction which is the only accrediting agency in Iowa for public junior colleges.

The college was organized in 1946 and has already enrolled more than 250 students. Many of its graduates and former students are now enrolled in senior colleges and universities of the country. Several hold semi-professional and skilled jobs requiring training in mathematics, science, and communication skills beyond those offered in high school.

College activities include a student council, athletics, music, speech, and social events. The amount of student participation in activities is large in terms of the percentage of students participating compared with that in the large schools. The student council is a member of the Iowa Association of Junior College Student Councils. The college is a member of the Iowa Junior College Association which promotes and directs intercollegiate activity participation.

The college offers to its students a personalized training under skilled instructors at a cost all can meet. Clinton Junior College being located here, no student having the interest and ability need be denied the advantages of college training.

C.H.S. To Be Modernized

Improvements Ordered By Board

The Clinton school board last night voted two new improvements for Clinton High School. The first, introduced by Spanish Teacher Nancy Havighurst, is a pulley system which will be used by the students for passing notes. There will be a special secretary in the office who will receive the notes and send them to the class directed. Principal Paul Shurser heartily approved of this idea and has appointed Shirley Hira as the transactor.

The other bill, suggested by Lorayne Scholtes, teacher of home economics, is for the installation of a soda fountain in the school library with all rats free to the students and to be paid for by the teachers. This was also heartily approved. Principal Shurser has appointed Pete Wilson and John Lind to act as soda jerks.

Musicians Make Debut

The Music Hall of Fame has added two more names to its list today. They are those of Nancy Skatkat and John Christian, duo pianists, who made their debut in Carnegie Hall, now owned by Robert Andrews. The crowd was overwhelmed by their magnificence. The climax came when Christian held high C for eighteen minutes, a feat not accomplished by many artists.

Nurses Play Role Of Heroines

Medals were pinned upon a group of six brave heroic nurses as they held to their motto, "Keep Cool." Last night in the Swanke Grande Hotel, a fire, which had been caused by a lighted cigarette, broke out in the room of Spinster Alice Strohm. An unidentified person was seen carrying her down the fire escape.

Upon seeing the blaze, two of the nurses, Jacqueline Holle and Maxine Subcliff, ran into the burning building to warn the occupants and to assist in the rescue. While they were doing this, the other four, Carol Sohr, Marion Leonard, Barbara Collins, and Lois Benstrup, quickly and skillfully knitted a net into which the trapped victims jumped. Everyone was rescued safely except Dick Calschen, who fell on his head on a nearby pile of bricks and contracted measles.

Four Given Aid By City

Four destitute men were fed at the City Hall this morning and given a day's work cleaning out the sewers. They gave their names as Philip Frederick, Arthur Goodridge, Gaylord Rolston and Robert Schmitt.

Send Message From China

Radio communications were established between Violetta Weiss and Patt Knight, missionaries in China. The reports were favorable as told to the New York Times by Jack Thomson, radio announcer. They told of a skirmish with the natives in which two trucks were lost, three barrels of dried prunes were stolen, and the driver, John Weinbeck, was injured. The loss is not, however, considered great.

Marble Team Trims Davenport

By dint of clever playing and by displaying superior handwork, the marble octet, led by Capt. Tom Baile, emerged from a bitterly contested game with the Davenport squad, three agates, two crystals, and five commies to the good. The star player, Dick DeLoe, was put out of the game because of an injured knuckle given him by Irwin Shiffert of Davenport.

New Species Of Bug Found

To a group of scientists today, David Bowerenz and Owen Fishwild reported their discovery of a new insect called the radio bug because he lives on aerial wires. They declared that it is this bug that causes static.

Woman Slot Machine Ring Discovered

Police today uncovered what is believed to be the first woman slot machine ring in the world. They were discovered hiding out in a cave in Mitchellville, Iowa. It was through the confession of Norma Kahn that the names of other members were learned. They are revealed as Marilyn Mather, Phyllis Hellble, Delores Howard, and Joan Nielsen, all ex-convicts.

Society Protests

Fifty feminine fighters marched staunchly behind their president Mary Lou Judd in a parade through the streets of Clinton. The other prominent officers are Lucille Houser, Joanne Melchert, and Betty Potter. They all carried banners denouncing alcohol. Only one man joined their ranks as they paraded the highways and byways, this was Alan Lorenz.

Artists Reach Goal

Grey-haired and weary of their long ordeal, Artists Susan Lynn, Marilyn Hanger, and Loraine Heath have at last accomplished the goal they have been seeking for twenty years. They have managed to publish a six-page booklet of drawings for the tiny tots. They are selling at eighteen dollars per copy, and to date 1,000,000,000 copies have been sold.

New Movie Hits Town

Coming to Clinton next week will be the Academy Award winning motion picture, Anthony and Cleopatra, which stars Howard Sible and Cheryl Burde. Co-starring as Caesar will be Norman Sivertsen while Brutus will be played by Ronald Smith.

LaVerne Hollister, owner of the newly remodeled Palace Theater, stated that every effort will be made to make the patrons comfortable in the new bug-free seats. As an added attraction, free boxes of popcorn will be given to the first ten customers by Mary Dittmer, chief corn-popper.

Thumbers Still Hot And Strong

John Paxton, who promotes anything as long as he has customers, is the sponsor of a tiddly wink marathon in which the Dick Hickenbottom-Robert Jorgensen team is leading. The Thumbers started playing a year ago and are still going strong. The Jack Hinkley-Lavele Rasmussen team continue to hold second place, totaling up to press time 8,402,789,363 points, only approximately a million behind the leaders.

Girls Faint As Schawl Croons

As Lyle Schawl crooned, millions of women fell to the floor in a dead faint because of his masterful voice. Attired in a pink bow tie and red plaid suit, the King of Swoon sang eighty-nine encore numbers, and on his final song, "Sabre Dance", three girls fell into the aisle. They were promptly picked up by Usher Don Duvall, who named them as Beverly Chafer, Betty Sanderson, and Janis Schultz.

Maurek's Restaurant Sued

Maurek's Restaurant, owned and operated by Peter Maurek and his wife, Margo—cousins who married for the sake of the business and because of their deep love for each other—is being sued today by Raymond Foster Doyne, Jr., a traveling salesman. In his plea he stated that he was peacefully eating when Mrs. Maurek threw a bowl of hot chili con carne at his bald head. Much to the surprise of the court she testified "I carefully aimed my dish to hit Mr. Doyne's head. I regret very much that I hit his neck instead." Mr. Doyne won his case.

Landlady Shoots Star Boarder

When George Clark refused to pay his board bill, Miss Joyce Baugh became so enraged that she shot him three times and then threw him out the door. He is expected to recover.

75,000 See Checkerboard Classic

Before a howling mob of 75,000, Art Stone beat Norman Petersen in the annual checkerboard classic, after Petersen refused to play on account of rough tactics in the second round. However, Don Richter, referee, said, "The game couldn't have been more fairly played."

Wife Scared By Tramp

Mrs. Jennie Brown Belt was very badly frightened by a tramp yesterday. She was baking when this vagabond suddenly stepped into her kitchen and snatched two pies. This tramp may be a man by the name of Homer Johnson, who is known to wander around the country.

Circus Here Next Week

"Smiley" Carlson and Dick Crider have been given permission by Mayor Art Frondle to bring their thirteen ring circus to Clinton. This is advertised as the worst best circus. Among the main attractions will be Exotic Barbara Beuley as Baresheba the Bullie Dancer, Shirley Gilbert and Georgia Haring Bareback Rider Duo, Howard Duke and Lou Driver as the roller-skating "Wizards on Wheels"; Joie Backer and Merle Ruch, The World's Smallest Full Grown Midget Team; Fearless Don Bigwood as he tames scores of man-hungry lions; Shirley Obermiller as the "Woman on the Flying Trapeze"; Bill Lepard as the Human Cannonball, and last but not least, Shirley Higgins as The Wild Woman Who Eats Live Chickens.

These, ladies and gentlemen, are but a few of the attractions which promises to be Clinton's best.

The Ladies' Aid Meets

The Ladies' Aid had a delightful meeting at the home of Miss Doris Jean Danbatt last evening. The tables, at which a lunch was served, were beautifully decorated in old lavender and sunflower yellow. Willadean Wickes read a splendid paper entitled "The Art of Photography." Next these future homemakers gave several of their favorite recipes. Joan Pech stated that here was crab apple cake. Jean Gell preferred snake stew, while Joan Rockwell liked baked eggs on sausage. Next Donna Hudson demonstrated her skill as a beauty operator by styling a new up sweep hair do on Beverly Atkinson.

When the delicious lunch had been served, the guests left, declaring a good time had been had by all. The next meeting will be held in Skunk Hollow, the summer home of Miss Virginia Allender.

Cummings And Carstensen Win Speed Title

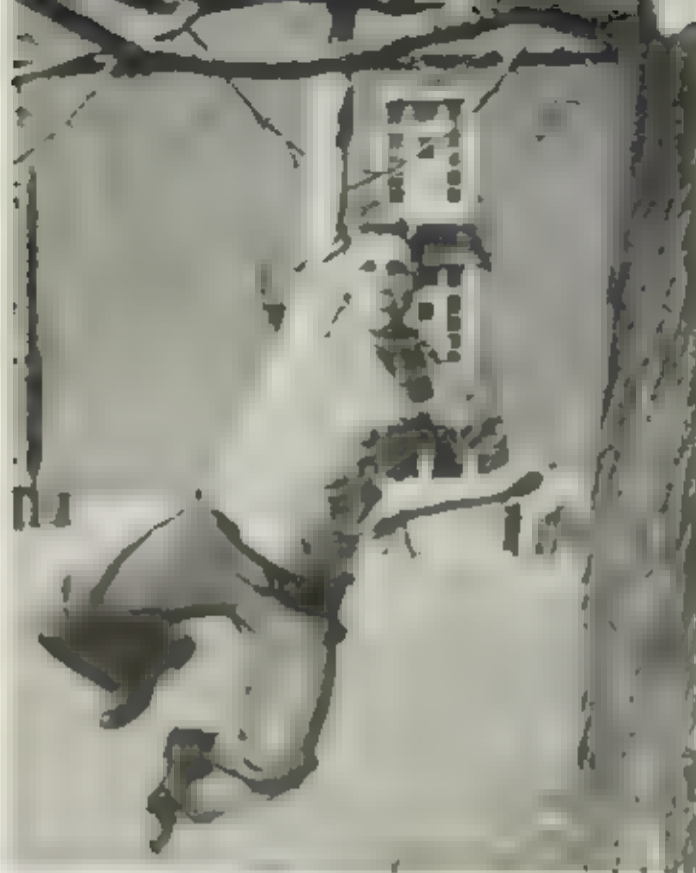

Fifth Avenue rang with cheers as Arden Cummings, in her streamlined Ford, christened "The Ferns," raced across the finishing line in fame, accompanied by her partner and gear shifter, Verla Carstensen. Stopping the car as soon as was possible after going at such a terrific speed, she jumped daintily out of the cockpit and smiled. Oh, how she smiled!—at the admiring crowd. Five minutes following the abrupt stop, Miss Carstensen flew through the windshield, catching her nose on the windshield wiper which caused each a vibration that her teeth were knocked out. She jumped up but smiled not. Oh, how she smiled not! at the admiring crowd. Miss Cummings stated, "Half of the time I did not know whether I was Cummings or Gings." This statement was greeted by a deafening roar of laughter which continued until she beat her head on a rock for silence, after which she exclaimed, "I Speak For Democracy!" This was followed by a five minute oration.

In a statement made to the press, they announced that they were going to quit the racing business and write class prophecies for high school Annuals instead. They said, "We realize it will be more dangerous, but we are prepared for the worst."
